TEXAS.
War Department, Dec. 19, 1836.
"GENERAL ORDERS."

FROM information received at this Department, it appears that many persons in this Republic, and also in the United States of America, are wearing the Uniform and Military badge of the Army and Navy of Texas, without the warrant of a commission from the Government, and have thus licentious and unprincipled conduct and many impositions practiced upon the friends of Texas abroad, reflected disgrace on the country and service which they pretend to represent.

It therefore becomes my duty to pronounce all such persons, acting without authority from this Department, or by order of the President of this Republic, IMPOSTORS, and it is hoped they will be treated as such.

No person within the limits of Texas or of any friendly person, shall wear the insignia of an officer in the Texian service, without a special order, or permission to that effect, from This or the Naval Department of this Government.

By order of the President.
Signed, WILLIAM S. FISHER.
Acting Sec'y of War.
Papers friendly to the cause of Texas are respectfully requested to publish the above.
